While interests and skills change during the course of a person's life, the one thing that does remain constant is an individual's Personality Type - the innate way each person naturally prefers to see the world and make decisions. And although all individuals are unique, people of the same type share enormous similarities in the kinds of academic subjects and careers they find interesting, and the kind of work they find satisfying.

By understanding the role Personality Type plays, people can gain important insights into their educational, career, and relationship needs. And because people of different types often communicate in very different ways, counselors and teachers can learn which strategies work most effectively with each individual student.

So, let's check out

Follow these steps to discover your "personality type":

1. Click on the Careers tab
2. Click on "personality type" under "what are my interests?"
3. Click on "Start Assessment" and complete the Personality Type!

The assessment takes about 30 minutes to complete. If you don't finish during your Link Crew time, you can do so at home. When you are done, read your personality description, strengths and blindspots, and check out the careers that interest you.
